THE GREAT FIRE in CHILLIACO-THE, Ohio. One-third of the town burnt to ashest CHILLIACOTHE, O., Tuesday, April 13, 1852.

Mesers. STEARNS & MARVIN—Gentlemen: Yours of the Sth is at hand. In reply, every Safe in the fire, except yours, has proved good for nothing. I lost a large Safe—it was perfectly destroyed; but in the small Salamander I bought from you, nothing was injured. Your obedient servant.

What T. Clemson.

The above letter shows that in a real hot fire Rich's Salamanders are the only Safes to be depended upon. In the Pearl-st. fire, eleven Safes, of different makers, were totally destroyed, Rich's Safe alone bidding defiance to the flames, preserving notes, bonds and mortgages, to the value of 100,000. The Chillicothe fire is a parallel case—every Safe but Rich's is destroyed. DR. C. W. ROBACK, the GREAT SWEDISH ASTROLOGER, 6 White-at, New-York. He cometh of an ancient race—
A race that long has read the stars, Foreteiling, by each planet's place, Famine, plagne, pestlence and wars; But he, although by many a King With honer and with gifts endowed, Prefers to help the sufering.
And for the humble leaves the proud. His door stands wide for one and all; Whe needs his aid shall aid receive; Vast are his gifts, and those who call His art shall certainly relieve. In nickness, sorrow or disgrace,
He points the way to hope once more—Teaches the duped a frand to trace.
And love estranged he can restore. Yes, by his reomantic skill, And schonisthed, Wishes and hopes he can fulfill, And astronighe lore combined, Wishes and hopes he can fulfill, And fathoms the depths of mind. Let those who doubt so hear and see; The sick in heart, of mind of frame, Will find, whenever to him they flee, His rowers are equal to his fame.

TO CURE a COLD, with Headache

TORAL on going to bed, and wrap up warm, to sweat during the night.

FOR A COLD AND COUGH, take it morning, noon, and evening, according to directions on the bottle, and the difficulty will soon be removed. None will long suffer from this trouble when they find it can be so readily cured. Persons efficted with a seated cough, which breaks them of their rest at night, will find, by taking the Cherry Pectoral on going to bed, they may be sure of sound, unbroken sleep, and consequently refreshing rest. Great relief from suffering, and an ultimate cure, is afforded to thousands who are thus afflicted, by this invaluable requesty.

From its agreeable effect in these cases, many find themselves unwilling to forego its use when the necessity for it has ceased.

To SINGERS AND PUBLIC SPEARERS this remedy is invaluaselves unwilling to forego its use when the necessity for its has ceased.

To SINGERS AND PUBLIC SPEARERS this remedy is invaluable, as by its action on the throat and lungs, when taken in small quantities, it removes all hoarseness in a few hours, and wonderfully increases the power and flexibility of the volce. As it that is generally much relieved, and often wholly cured by Cherry Pectoral. But there are some cases so obstinate as to yield entirely to no medicins. Cherry Pectoral will cure them, if they can be cured.

BEONCHITS, of trinitation of the throat and upper portion of the lungs, may be cured by taking Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses. The uncomfortable oppression is soon relieved.

FOR CROUP.—Give an emetic of antimony, to be followed by large and frequent doses of the Cherry Pectoral, until it subdues the disease. If taken in season, it will not fail to cure.

Hoering Cough may be broken up and soon cured by the use of Cherry Fectoral.

The influenza is speedily removed by this remedy. Numerous instances have been noticed where whole families were protected from any serious consequences, while their neighbors, without the Cherry Fectoral, were suffering from the disease.

were protected from any serious consequences, whose the neighbors, without the Cherry Pectoral, were suffering from the disease.

Cures of severe diseases upon the Lungs have been affected by Cherry Pectoral in such extreme cases as warrant the belief that a remedy has at length been found that can be depended on to cure the Coughs, Colds and Consumntion which carry from our midst thousands every year. It is indeed a medicine to which the affilted can look with confidence for reliet, and they should not fail to avail themselves of it. Prepared by J. C. AYER, Chemist, Lowell, Mass. THE WORLD'S HAIR RESTORER.

THE WORLD'S HAIR RESTORER.

-Warranted to contain no deleterious ingredienta! A never failing life-color restorer, and preserver of the Hair, Skin and Sight. It is death to Grey Hairs, and destruction to Wiga Scratches and Spectacles.

The Restorer is intalible. It is easily applied, and will not soil the linest linen.

It will remove and prevent dizziness, headache, scorf, dandruff scald-head, or any emption of the head. It will also restore the sight and prevent the failing out of the hair. By invigorating the skin, nuscless, nerves, blood vessels, and the roots of the hair, it will gradually restore the gray locks and cause the young hvirs in a few weeks to come forth in their original color. When once restored, by applying it a few times every three menths you will not have a gray hair should you attain the age of a hundred years. Fersons sending orders for the Restorer must state the color of their hair deark or light. It has been thoroughly tested by long experience and practice, that the ingredients which restore light hair will have he effect on black; therefore it is useless to send an order without stating the original color of the hair.

No. I is for black or dark. No. 2 for light. No. 3 Hylabals and means a superior dressing for the hair for young and old, and essential to use with either No. 1 or 2.

No such preparation has ever been effered to the public. Ore bottle is generally enough for a year. None genuine except Mrs. ALLEN'S World's Hair Restorer, New York, blown on the bottles. Price $1.50 per bottle. Hylobalsamam. 37t cents per bottle. For sale at No. 180 Bowsty; No. 219 Washingten-st.; No. 209 Fulton-st., Brooklyn, and by druggists and perfumers generally.
